IFHTSE Bulletin/Newsletter 2026-02

There are poster awards to be won at the IFHTSE World Congress

3000 € altogether will be given for the best posters - sponsored equally by Burgdorf KG and Fluxtrol Inc. more...

Dr Thomas Waldenmaier appointed IFHTSE Honorary Vice President

This award honours individuals who have supported the Federation continuously as valid partners and friends over many years while they served in functions of other associations or companies. Currently he is President of our German member association AWT. more...

Obituary for IFHTSE Fellow

Prof Heinz-Joachim Spies

He was an internationally renowned expert with very significant scientific achievements related to nitriding, covering a broad range of topics around this technology. more…

IFHTSE invites four young researchers to free participation at the World Congress

Nur Suraya Binti Amad Mazni, Lucas Carrillo, Asma Teghri, and Mitchell Shields have been selected by the Executive Committe to free participation, including travel expenses, at the IFHTSE World Congress in Cologne, Germany. more...